...News For Elderly Men...

A "grand old man" told us some time ago that he found it increasingly difficult to get good, substantial ready-made suits any more, because all the styles, to him, seemed to have been made for college boys only. We asked him to see these new Spring arrivals made especially for elderly men, and he was enthusiastic about them. He said "let all the other men of my age in town know about these suits. They are just what most of them will want." So here's the news. This is your invitation. Come and see them—$15 to $35.

For the Young Fellows

Here are the snappiest suits ever designated. They too are priced from $15 to $35.

This is "MALLORY HAT WEEK"

See Our Windows

—then drop in and see the hats themselves, for we are making a special display of them on Friday and Saturday. It's a "safe bet" that you can't get more in a hat, either in style or quality for the money, than you can in a "Mallory." All shapes and shades.

And besides the "Mallory's" here are "STETSON'S," "YOUNG'S," "DUNLAP'S" and "HIGER/SPECIALS." The price range goes from $2 to $6.

...Yale Pride Flour...

made into raisin bread is one of the most tasty and nutritious foods that can be placed before growing Young America.

Wheat is a white man's food and one of his staples, but fickle childhood sometimes wants a change, and you'll find the above a good one.

Its lower price easily puts it in the economical class, which will please the bread winner, also. Mother will be pleased because all the others are.
